

Results

Data on statewide Baker Act exam initiations for calendar year 2010 by county of residence based on report of the receiving facility on the Cover Sheet about location at an assisted living facility just prior to the Baker Act Exam is reported in Tables 1 and 2. The content of both tables is identical. The only difference between the tables is in how they are sorted. Table 1 presents results alphabetically by county of residence, while Table 2 presents results sorted by counties with the highest to lowest numbers of overall Baker Act exam initiations for adults.

Caution should be taken when interpreting results for counties with relatively small numbers of Baker Act exam initiations for adults. The completeness of this variable is also variable across counties and should be considered when interpreting results.
